Whatever Happened to Idlewild

Documentary coming to Cadillac

This documentary, produced by Coy Davis, explores Idlewild, Michigan and will be shown in the Library Community Room on Thursday, August 4 at 6pm. The Friends of the Library joins Rotary Club of Cadillac in bringing this film and the producer, Mr. Davis, to Cadillac.

Located just east of Baldwin in Lake County, this African-American resort was founded in 1912. During the 1940's and 1950's it played host to black professionals from all over the Midwest. Primarily lake cottages, hotels, restaurants, and two Las Vegas style night clubs, it hosted legendary performers such as Louis Armstrong and B.B. King. With the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Idlewild declined in its number of visitors. Today, it is experiencing a renaissance and

Word of the Month

Chinglish — The use of English words by Chinese speakers (i.e email, OK, NBA), or mixing the two languages to create new words i.e. BB (for baby), bai-bai (bye-bye),

China has banned newspapers, publishers and website-owners from using foreign words - particularly English ones. China's state press and publishing body said such words were sullyng the purity of the Chinese language.

Take advantage of all the Library has to offer. Great place to escape while enjoying summer in northern Michigan.

Take a walk around the Lake; make music at the Sound Garden; picnic at City Park - marveling at the sparkling fountain or imagining the Shay locomotive at its finest hour.

Stop by before you take in a musical event on a summer evening at the Rotary Pavilion.

When you're done at the Skate Park, or kayaking around the lake, biking the White Pine Trail—pull up the kayak, park the bike and head on in to see what other awesome adventures await you right here at the Library.

Computer Virus Alert

There has been an email going around appearing to be from the United States Postal Service with the subject of "Delivery Notice" and containing two links to check the delivery status or print an invoice.

Do not click on the links as they will attempt to install spyware on your computer. Check with the Post Office first if you ever have reason to believe this may be a legitimate notice. Ask yourself—is there a reason the Post Office would have your email address?

Welcome to new Library Staff:

BOOK GROUP NEWS

Mark your calendars for the first BOOK GROUP PARTY!

When: Thursday September 22, 5:30-7:30

Where: The Community Room at the Cadillac Wexford Public Library

Who: All Book Group Members and those who would like to join or form a book group
Eat, Chat, Browse Books! Okay, we won't really eat the books, but snacks will be inspired by the books!

Check out what we have for book group sets, plan your year, talk about what books that groups would like to buy and share, give your opinions on the books you've read and browse some new ideas for book group sets that Horizon will provide. Bring your ideas for how we can make the library book sets work better for you. There will be book inspired door prizes too!

R.S.V.P. to Lindsey at the Cadillac Wexford Public Library
775-6541 or torkkol@cadillaclibrary.org

If you aren't currently registered as a Book Group at the library, we will have registrations available or contact Lindsey to sign up ahead of time. If you are looking for a group, we will be taking names of individuals with the hopes of creating a new group.

has become a historic vacation and retirement community. Mr. Davis will be at the screening to introduce the film and will hold a discussion after.

Any book that helps a child to form a habit of reading, to make reading one of his deep and continuing needs, is good for him.

Hunting for Crafts

If it's July in northern Michigan, Autumn must be just around the corner.

April and Karen are looking for talented people to share their special craft with the Library and the public on November 15, 2011. Each demonstrations will run for an hour between 9am to 7:30pm. Ideas are knitting, crochet, quilling, carving or whatever talents you would like to share.

Please contact April or Karen at the Library, 775-6541 if interested.
