LIBRARY NEWS

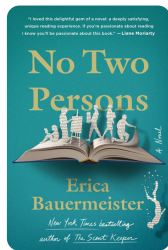

FEBRUARY 17 IS PRESIDENT'S DAY! The Cadillac Library will be closed from 9 am to 12 pm for staff training. Library staff members have to know a lot of things! From how to process a Melcat book to how to introduce a patron to the Libby app to dealing with disability issues in the library and more! So, we're taking half a day to get better at our jobs. The Cadillac Library will open at 12 pm on February 17. The Manton and Mesick Libraries will open at 1 pm. Thank you for your understanding while we learn to serve you better!

MANTON LIBRARY PROJECT UPDATE: We are so excited to see the progress on our new building! We cannot wait to move in and expand our offerings to the community of Manton. We appreciate the Manton Friends of the Library and the building committee so much for all of the hard work they have put into this beautiful spot!

BOOK CLUB CORNER

Holy cow! It's cold out there. We had all better stay inside and curl up with a good book. When you finish the book, discussing it with your book club is the next best thing. Here are two new sets that your book club can reserve:

No Two Persons by Erica Bauermeister - One book. Nine readers. Ten changed lives. Together, their stories reveal how books can affect us in the most beautiful and unexpected of ways—and how we are all more closely connected to one another than we might think.

The Collected Regrets of Clover by Mikki Brammer - Probing, clever, and hopeful, this book is perfect for readers of The Midnight Library and Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine as it turns the normally taboo subject of death into a reason to celebrate life.

Ask your Book Club's contact person to get on the waiting list for these titles. They can request book sets by calling the library or emailing bookclub@cadillaclibrary.org. Book clubs can reserve these books today!

Happy Reading! - Erin, Collection Manager

Did you know the library has its own book clubs you can join?

Books & Booze, Monday, Feb. 10th, 6:30pm: Join our open community book group as we read Sandwich by Catherine Newman. A moving, hilarious story of a family summer vacation full of secrets, lunch, and learning to let go. Meets at The Greenhouse, Willow/Primos.

Next Chapter, Thursday, Feb. 13th, 10am: Our open book club meets in the Community Room of the library. This month we're reading Anxious People by Fredrik Backman. A crime that never took place, a would-be bank robber who disappears into thin air, and eight extremely anxious strangers who find they have more in common than they ever imagined.

Tattered Pages, Tuesday, Feb. 18th, 5pm: Our historical fiction book club meets in the nonfiction area of the library for discussion and crafting. This month we're reading God of the Woods by Liz Moore. When a teenager vanishes from her Adirondack summer camp, two worlds collide.

A carefully curated treasure trove of more than 100 favorite vintage recipes found in the Betty Crocker archives, dusted off and so delicious you'll love them on today's table.

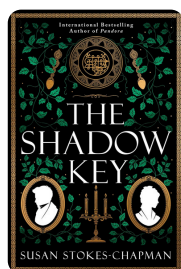

In this collection of four heartfelt, gentle novellas, three former friends have found success in the floral industry, but happiness--and love--remain elusive.

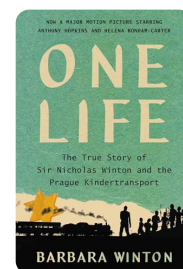

Robbie Steinhardt lives a peaceful life and doesn't dwell on his former life and the family and lover he left behind--back when he was Mac Dekker, CIA. But when he learns his son Will died following in his footsteps, he needs answers.

A classic historical murder mystery centered around the glamor, violence, wealth, and opium of 1920's French-colonial Vietnam. One will lose his mind. One will pay. One will agonize. And one will die.

On an isolated estate in late-eighteenth-century rural Wales, a young English doctor uncovers dangerous secrets that may threaten his own life in this spellbinding Gothic tale.

Sir Nicholas Winton rescued 669 Jewish children from Nazi-occupied Czechoslovakia at the brink of World War II. Most never saw their parents again. This is his true story.

NEW YOUNG ADULT BOOKS

STAFF PICK: Jayne SOMETIMES I AM HOT LAVA BY JODY JENSEN SHAFFER

Most of the time, Buddy is a regular kid. He has his ups and downs. But when things don't go his way, he can feel the lava bubble and boil inside himself until he erupts like a volcano! An incident at the playground causes Buddy to blow (even his dark hair turns red!) He notices that his outburst scares his little sister and that he needs to calm down. Sitting under a tree and doing deep breathing does the trick for him. The back of the book has ideas for recognizing your body's cues that something is bothering you and you're getting angry, ready to erupt. There are multiple tips for calming down, with illustrations for taking a "volcano breath." The author also uses the correct terms for volcanic activity (molten rock, magma, Earth's core, etc.) so it can be paired with a science lesson as well. I feel the story itself is cute and the tips for a child with "volcanic" episodes are practical and useful.

STAFF PICK: Mallory

NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART
BY LEX
CROUCHER

In Lex Croucher's 2nd historical romance for the young adult crowd, she once again writes about historical heroes from a short distance. Robin Hood's granddaughter wrestles with her family legacy and the reality of the current state of the Merry Men. When novice healer Clem is kidnapped by the Merry Men as revenge for her mentor's willingness to provide medical care even to the hated Sheriff of Nottingham's men, she is thrilled by the prospect of seeing these legendary fighters with her own eyes. But the Merry Men are not what Clem thought. Clem's kidnapper, the granddaughter of Robin Hood and the daughter of the current leader of the Merry Men, is desperately trying to prove herself worthy of the name Hood. Clem's unique and hilarious voice keeps the pages turning and the laughs rolling in this found family, slow burn romance.
