HORROR LIT FEST 2023: OCTOBER 23 - 31

Starting Monday, October 23rd, stop by the library for a celebration of all things horror! We'll have activities throughout the week for teens and adults. On top of several special events, we'll also have a scavenger hunt throughout the library, a scary short story contest, and take home magic bookmarks. Find the full festival schedule on our website: <https://www.cadillaclibrary.org/Calendar/events>

BOOK CLUB CORNER

This season of reading always makes me crave mysteries. I like a little spine-tingling read with the chill in the air. We have lots of mystery sets in the Book Club collection:

Magpie Murders by Anthony Horowitz - a deviously dark take on vintage crime fiction.

All the Missing Girls by Megan Miranda - a breathtaking story about the disappearances of two young women—a decade apart—told in reverse.

The Thursday Murder Club by Richard Osman - features four unlikely friends meet up once a week to investigate unsolved murders.

These are just a few of the mystery titles we have in our collection. Ask your book club's contact person to request one for your read this month! They can request book sets by calling the library or emailing bookclub@cadillaclibrary.org.

The Books and Booze book club, a group the library runs partnering with Horizon Books, meets the second Monday of every month at the Greenhouse at Willow in Cadillac (meeting October 9th). This is an open book club, so if you would like to join, simply stop in at Horizon Books to purchase your own copy of the month's featured title at a discounted price. You can also contact the library to see if we have extra copies to borrow for free!

This month's discussion book: The Henna Artist by Alka Joshi. Escaping from an abusive marriage, Lakshmi makes her way to the vibrant 1950s pink city of Jaipur. There she becomes the most requested henna artist to the wealthy women of the upper class. Trusted with the secrets of the wealthy, she can never reveal her own...

Finally, remember the fun and excitement of elementary school book fairs? The Cadillac Wexford Public Library, Horizon Books and The Greenhouse invite you to our Book Club Fair on October 23rd at 6:00pm. We will get a publisher's preview of books coming soon, a chance to mix and mingle with other book clubbers, do a book tasting, and opportunities to get crafty. Not in a book club? You're still welcome. This evening promises to be a true reader's delight!

Happy Reading! -Erin, Collection Manager

LEGENDS & LATTES:
by TRAVIS BALDREE

If you love fantasy but need something a bit more cozy than epic, this is the book for you. Viv is an orc who has grown weary of the violent life and yearns to settle down. When she opens a coffee shop in a city full of folks who have never even heard of coffee before she has her work cut out for her, but friends and loves met along the way lighten her load as she figures out her potential for something other than bloodshed. You'll want to settle in and stay in the world Travis Baldree creates and fortunately his new book, Bookshops & Bonedust, which will follow a younger Viv, is due to release on November 7th.

STEM SATURDAYS: Saturdays, 11am-12pm, ages 5+

Come by and try out one of our 3 Launchpads. These devices are preloaded with high-quality, ad-free, learning apps and games designed to create well-rounded problem-solvers who look at the world around them and ask questions like "how?" and "why?"

FROM THE DIRECTOR'S DESK

One County, One Library. The Cadillac Wexford Public Library is a county public library, serving the whole of Wexford County with library locations in Cadillac, Manton, Mesick, and Buckley. The library board and staff want to make sure that we are serving all areas of the county to the best of our ability.

We are starting a new initiative called "One County, One Library" to bring services to smaller communities that don't house their own library branches. These services include stocking local free little libraries, supporting local events, and speaking to local groups about library offerings. If you have a group that would like to learn more about the library and what it can provide, please, contact me. I would love to visit with you!

-Tracy, Library Director
